

FAR END

Música: Rafa Crespo / Hector Ortín

Letra: Hector Ortín

Tonight

A white veil covers the stars
Soft whispers in the wind carry inside
Feelings of anger and wrath
It's all left behind
Taken from my hands
Sad sorrow
Fulfills the land

Deep thy feelings in my heart
But too soon I realized
That loss was on my side
Midnight cries
Drew bitter eyes
In barren shores (I) saw growing man's craft

Did my fire cause your cold?
Did the dawn steal our light?
Someone's in the way of dusk
How to live with no life?

Past is present 'though (it) was past
End is past and future ends
My dreams flow now in vain
Tempt the past
Bring it up
Is (the) future dead?

The moonlight ship we were on
Still keeps flying through skies
Together we can pull through
The dreams can keep us alive

The moonlight ship we were on
Still keeps flying through skies
Forever seeing far away
The end of the night

The end of the night

The moonlight ship we were on
Still keeps flying through skies
Forever seeing far away
The end of the night

Keep and follow your desires
Still what's left remains inside
The nightmare is over
It all can be past
One more piece to move at last
Rule your fate
To give your fears an end

Deep thy feelings in my heart
But too soon I realized
That loss was on my side
Midnight cries
Where's now hope?...
